Soul Fly Band – Monthly Meeting Notes

The questions are:

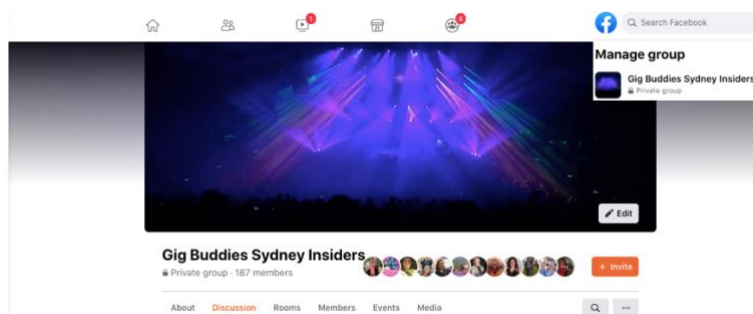

1. What Is Soul Fly Band?
2. What does Soul Fly Band do?
3. How often do we meet?
4. Why should you join Soul Fly Band?

Once the video is done we will share it on the Gig Buddies website.

The Gig Buddies Soul Fly Band has formed a WhatsApp group for members to chat outside of meetings.

We will keep this chat about Gig Buddies matters and positive topics. We will not share personal details i.e. family, relationship and other personal issues.

We discussed a Code of Conduct for the Gig Buddies Insiders Facebook Group and the Gig Buddies website.

Some things that are ok to post in the group are:

1. Discussing events coming up.
2. Things that a buddy and their volunteer have done together.
3. Positive things that buddies and volunteer have done.

Some things not to post in the group are:

1. Personal issues that you would discuss with a close friend or a staff member/one-on-one.
2. Things that cross other people's personal boundaries.

The Soul Fly Band have decided to do an infographic and video to explain the rules of the Facebook Insiders Group.

We wrote down a list of gigs we can do that gives buddies other options if they can't or don't like walking. These options are:

1. Coffee/takeaway food catch up in a park.
2. Painting class.
3. Music group meet-up in a park
4. Dog walking event.
5. Chinese Gardens and Tumbalong in Darling Harbour.
6. Museums – Museum of Contemporary Art (MCA), The Rocks.
7. Photography sessions outdoors.
8. Board games in a park
9. Sport activities in the park.

The Gig Buddies Soul Fly Band discussed updating the Corona Catalogue on the website to show things to do now while COVID-19 restrictions ease and in the future after COVID-19 is over.

Gig Buddies Soul Fly Band has decided to raise more awareness about the Companion Card for volunteers and for participants.

Gig Buddies Soul Fly Band also discussed if it is possible to use Companion Cards and Concession tickets to make Gig Buddies socials cheaper for volunteers, buddies and staff.

Gig Buddies staff will discuss this in the next month.
